

Child Protection, Child Custody and Domestic Violence Training

Friday, June 16, 2006
9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Description: This training is designed for legal aid attorneys, court appointed attorneys and private pro bono attorneys who represent parents in child custody and child protection cases where domestic violence is involved. The training will focus on the newly adopted Family to Family Initiative and Team Decision Making Meetings utilized in child protection actions and specifically the effect on families with domestic violence. In addition, the training will provide essential information on the interplay between a child protection action and a child custody action in family court. See attached agenda! For more information contact Rebecca Shiemke at 734-998-6100 x 27 or email rshiemke@umich.edu , or Sarah Prout Stubbs at 810-985-5107.
